1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:
2 Section 1. Section 23-672, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 23-672. Appeals board: review of board decision

5 A. ~~There is established~~ Within the department, an appeals board IS 6 ESTABLISHED consisting of four members. The director shall appoint the 7 members of the appeals board and shall designate one member to serve as 8 chairman.

9 B. Hearings conducted by or at the direction of the appeals board 10 shall be conducted as provided by section 23-674 and other provisions of this 11 chapter. The department shall prescribe by rule the procedures for 12 petitioning for review, removal of cases to the board, and appeals under 13 section 23-673. Upon the filing of a petition for review, the department 14 shall prepare a complete record, ~~including a transcript~~, unless the parties 15 stipulate otherwise.

16 C. In any case in which a petition for review of an appeal tribunal or 17 hearing officer decision has been filed by an interested party, the appeals 18 board may remand the case to any appeal tribunal or hearing officer for 19 further proceedings or may review the matter on the basis of the record in 20 the case, take additional evidence or rehear the matter and affirm, reverse, 21 modify or set aside the decision of the appeal tribunal or hearing officer.
22 Upon notice to the interested parties, a petition for review may be reviewed 23 by one member of the appeals board designated by the chairman. If an 24 interested party objects to review by one board member, the matter shall be 25 heard by three members of the appeals board.

26 D. Unless a petition for hearing or review of a department 27 determination made under ~~the provisions of~~ article 5 of this chapter is 28 withdrawn, the appeals board after affording the parties reasonable 29 opportunity for a fair hearing shall issue its decision.

30 E. Every decision of the appeals board shall be in writing. If the 31 decision is issued by three members of the appeals board, and the appeals 32 board is not unanimous, the decision of the majority shall control. The 33 minority may file a dissent from the decision, setting forth the reasons
34 therefor. All interested parties shall be promptly notified of the decision 35 and the reasons therefor. Notice to the parties of the decision shall be 36 accompanied by instructions explaining the procedure for requesting review as 37 described in subsection F of this section and clearly indicating the final 38 date for filing a request for review.

39 F. A party dissatisfied with the decision under subsection E of this 40 section may file a request for review within thirty days from the date of the 41 decision, which shall be a written request and memorandum stating the reasons
42 why the appeals board's decision is in error and containing appropriate 43 citations of the record, rules and other authority. Upon motion, and for 44 good cause, the appeals board may extend the time for filing a request for

1 review. The timely filing of such a request for review is a prerequisite to 2 any further appeal. The appeals board shall notify all parties of the filing 3 of a request for review and shall allow fifteen days from the date of the 4 notice for any party to respond. Thereafter, the appeals board shall issue a 5 decision upon review affirming, modifying or reversing its decision, or 6 ordering the taking of additional testimony. All parties shall be given 7 written notice by mail of the decision upon review.

13 afforded an opportunity for hearing. The notice shall state the time, place 14 and issues involved but if by reason of the nature of the proceeding the 15 issues cannot be fully stated in advance of the hearing, or if subsequent 16 amendment of the issues is necessary, they shall be fully stated as soon as 17 practicable, and opportunity shall be afforded all parties to present
18 evidence and argument with respect thereto. If a party's legal or factual
19 basis of contention is substantially changed at the hearing, causing surprise
20 to the opposing party, the hearing shall be rescheduled with timely notice
21 of the nature of the new contention unless a waiver on the record is obtained 22 from the party claiming surprise or the surprise could have been avoided with 23 due diligence. ~~The proceedings~~ ALL HEARINGS shall be recorded, ~~but 31 stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or default.

32 B. In a hearing conducted pursuant to this section, parties may be 33 represented in the following manner:

35 himself or may be represented by a duly authorized agent who is not charging 36 a fee for the representation.

37 2. An employer, including a corporate employer, may represent itself 38 through an officer or employee.

39 3. Any party may be represented by a person who is charging a fee for 40 the representation and who is either a duly authorized agent who was 41 previously or is currently retained by a party for purposes other than 42 representation in an unemployment compensation hearing or an attorney who is 43 authorized to practice law in this state. An attorney or agent representing 44 a party before an appeal tribunal or the appeals board may charge a fee not

1 in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars but may request the department to 2 approve an additional amount which is reasonable for the services rendered.
3 This is limited only to an unemployment compensation appeal.

5 hearing conducted pursuant to this section is not deemed to be the practice 6 of law.

7 D. The tribunal and the appeals board may admit and give probative 8 effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by 9 reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. It shall give 10 effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. It may exclude 11 incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and unduly repetitious evidence. All 12 evidence, including records and documents in the possession of the department 13 of which it desires to avail itself, shall be offered and made a part of the 14 record in the case, and no other factual information or evidence shall be 15 considered in the determination of the case. Documentary evidence may be 16 received in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference.

18 facts and in addition may take notice of general, technical or scientific 19 facts within its specialized knowledge. Parties shall be notified either 20 before or during the hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or 21 otherwise, of the material so noticed, and they shall be afforded an 22 opportunity to contest the facts so noticed. The tribunal and the appeals 23 board may utilize their experience, technical competence and specialized 24 knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to them. Each party 25 shall have the right of cross-examination of the witnesses who testify and 26 shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence.

27 E. Every decision and order adverse to a party to the proceedings 28 shall be in writing or stated in the record and shall be accompanied by 29 findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings of fact shall consist 30 of a concise statement of the conclusions upon each contested issue of fact.
31 Parties to the proceeding shall be notified of the decision and order in 35 A. At the oral or written request of a party or on its own motion, the 36 hearing officer may order, orally or in writing, that the hearing be

38 request and the request is made at least five calendar days prior to the time 39 of hearing.

7 C. ~~The department of economic security shall adopt rules to set~~
8 ~~standards under which a party may be excused for failure to attend a hearing~~
9 ~~for good cause.~~
